

SPS Junior Travel Award Application

10th Annual Safety Pharmacology Society Meeting

Boston, Massachusetts ~ September 20-23, 2010

DEADLINE FOR RECEIPT AT SPS: JULY 1, 2010

Eligibility Criteria:

Eligible candidates include students (undergraduate or graduate), technical staff, and junior scientists, post-doctoral fellows (<5 years), and European early career lab heads. Candidates may come from with academia, contract research organizations, pharmaceutical or biotechnology industry, government or be engaged in preclinical research in safety pharmacology. Students are encouraged to apply. The research field can be any area of scientific novelty with application to Safety Pharmacology. Note students are also eligible to apply for the Student Travel Award.

Required Materials:

1. Application form and summary of research (500 words) sent as an e-mail attachment.
Note: Summary may be in abstract form, but needs to include: Introduction, Objective, Brief description of methods used, Results/findings and Conclusion.
2. Resumé or curriculum vitae attached to application form
3. One letter of recommendation from the mentor/supervisor or a faculty member/management. Letters of recommendation/nomination should be signed and sent postal or electronically (e.g. PDF format), or Faxed to the society.

All material should be sent to:

E-mail: SPS Headquarters (Krystle Correll)

Fax: (703) 438-3113

Postal: 1821 Michael Faraday Drive, Suite 300
Reston, VA 20190

Terms of the Award:

The award shall consist of:

The award shall consist of:

- $1500 to be applied toward travel expenses (receipts are required)
- Registration fee for the Annual Meeting.
- Free SPS membership for 1 year.
- Winners are required to present a poster, attend the poster presentation and the Award announcement for receipt of the award certificate.

NOTE—the poster may also be entered in the Junior Investigator Poster Contest with the submission of an abstract.

The awardees will be notified two weeks after the application deadline and the abstract will eventually be published on the SPS Annual Meeting Web site. The Award is not transferable and must be returned to SPS if the awardee does not present a poster and attend the SPS Annual Meeting & Award announcement (i.e., if the awardee cannot come and sends the poster with a colleague, the colleague cannot claim the travel award).

Safety Pharmacology Society

2010 Junior Travel Award Application

Name (First name, Middle Initial, Last name)

Address

City, State, Country Zip

Phone

Fax

Email

Company or Institution

Return application and required materials (see previous page) to:

SPS Headquarters, 1821 Michael Faraday Drive, Suite 300, Reston, VA 20190.

Applications need to be received on or before the deadline of July 1, 2010 in order for it to be considered for the 2010 Student Travel Award.

Note: All applicants may also submit their abstract for the Poster Competition. The poster competition online abstract submission system is limited to about 250 words. If you are interested in also submitting an abstract for the meeting and/or for the Poster Competition, please follow directions for the Abstract Submission located under the Annual Meeting/scientific programs link on the Safety Pharmacology Society Annual Meeting Website, <http://www.safetypharmacology.org/am2010/>.

Signature

Date